Eurasian Journal of Anesthesiology & Intensive Care
Editorial

Dear Colleagues,

We are pleased to announce the publication of the first issue of the third year of The Eurasian Journal of Anesthesiology and Intensive Care (EAJAIC), under the auspices of Medihealth Academy, in February 2026. Entering our third year represents an important milestone for our journal and reflects the growing interest, trust, and scientific engagement of our academic community.

We would like to express our sincere appreciation to all authors, reviewers, and members of the editorial board whose dedicated efforts continue to strengthen the scientific quality and credibility of EAJAIC. We also thank our production and publishing team for their continued professionalism and commitment throughout the publication process.

In this issue, we are proud to present a diverse selection of high-quality manuscripts, including original research articles and case-based contributions that address current challenges and evolving practices in anesthesiology, algology, and intensive care medicine. Our ongoing objective is to provide a reliable platform for the dissemination of innovative research, evidence-based clinical practice, and interdisciplinary collaboration.

As we move forward into our third year, our primary focus remains on enhancing editorial standards, strengthening peer-review quality, increasing international visibility, and achieving inclusion in prominent national and international scientific indexing databases. With your continued support and contributions, we are confident that EAJAIC will further expand its impact within the global anesthesiology and critical care community.

We sincerely thank you for your trust, support, and valuable scientific contributions.

Best regards.
